Report on Workshop on Soft Skills Development

Introduction: The institute has recognised that, the student is in much need to develop their soft skills. Considering this fact and focusing on the holistic development of the student, the student development cell with the help of IQAC of the college organised four days workshop on 'Soft skills development' which includes various soft skills modules.

The above said workshop has been organised from 14th of March 2022 2/17 of March 2022. Each day has two interactive sessions, which were conducted by the Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University certified soft skill trainer under the programme 'train the trainers'.

On the very first day college students had registered themselves for the workshop. Registered students were provided with the complete schedule of the workshop. The inaugural function was honoured by Dr Durgesh Kunte who had delivered a very motivational speech and declared the formal inauguration of the workshop. In the next session Professor Santhosh Gore train the students by clearing out students' doubts on 'how motivation is important and proper goal setting is significant to be successful in life'. The last session of the first day was conducted by Professor Dnyaneshwar Gatkar who has focused on the Character and Ethics.

The third and fourth sessions, second day, Dr Nikhilesh Nalode renowned soft skill trainer had trained the student on the topic presentation skills and Time management. The third day, session 5th and sixth, Mr Virat Ghude conducted the sessions on ' Interview skills', and ' Group discussion'. Both sessions were fruitful as they are important for the student when they apply for a job.

The last day, seventh and eight session were conducted by. Mr Dnyaneshwar Gatkar and Mr Santhosh Gore respectively. Mr Gatkar has discusses on the topic ' verbal and non-verbal communication' whereas Mr Gore has focus on ' Resume writing'. The valedictory session was honoured by Dr Durgesh Kunte, Principal, Loknayak Babuji Ane Mahila Mahavidyalaya Yavatmal, and Dr. Kavita Tated, head, Department of history. Both of these personalities guidance and appreciation of the participants elevated the efforts of the organising committee. The organising committee has also collected feedback from the participants on the sessions. The organising committee includes Dr Kavita Tated, Mr Dnyaneshwar Gatkar, and Mr Saurabh Wagare.

As a member of organising committee, this detail report is being submitted to the head of the Institute with respect.
