5.3. STUDENTS PARTICIPATION AND ACTIVITIES

5.3.2 Presence of an active Student Council and representation of students in academic and administrative bodies/committees of the Institution

- The college has students' committees guided by the faculty in-charge of the department. These committees organize various activities of the departments.
- The academic and administrative bodies have the student representatives to enhance the traits of decision-making and leadership.

The details of the activities are given below:

1. Class committee: The Class committee meeting is to improve the institution by redressing the academic issues. The committee consists of the student representatives from each class in every department. They discuss the academic plan, syllabus coverage, difficulties in the subject, etc.
2. National Service Scheme: The student volunteers of the NSS aim at developing student personality through community services.
3. Cultural Committee: The student representatives of the cultural committee organize extra-curricular and cultural activities. Under this, various cultural activities are staged by the student volunteers for the students in different cultural events.
4. Library Committee: The Library committee has student representatives and they provide suggestions on the functioning of the library, library timings, and additional books needed.
5. Discipline Committee: The discipline committee has student representatives and they make sure discipline is maintained during various events and activities.
